DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submissions filed on 07/20/2006 and 08/15/2006 have been entered.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

- Independent claims 1 and 16 are found allowable, the withdrawn claims 3, 5, 8-13, 17-21, 26, and 27 are rejoined.

Reasons for Allowance

3. Finally claims 1-26 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

- With regard to independent claims 1 and 16, as the closest reference on record, the Applicant Admitted Prior Art discloses a conventional magnetoresistive sensor comprising: a tri-layer reader stack including a first ferromagnetic layer, a second ferromagnetic layer, and a magnetoresistive layer positioned therebetween; and biasing means positioned with respect to the tri-layer reader stack and proximate to a surface of the magnetoresistive sensor for biasing a magnetization of the first ferromagnetic layer substantially orthogonal to a magnetization of the second ferromagnetic layer, but fails to show that the surface is a medium confronting surface.

- Applicant asserts in his invention a biasing layer is positioned on a top of the tri-layer reader stack separated from the tri-layer reader stack by a nonmagnetic spacer layer and biasing field is induced on the entire tri-layer reader stack (Specification, p. 3).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
